

Forty-Eight Snake

Washington county. In early years he has been a farmer, and each summer a slaver on the river near Cobb. While there he met the girl who is now his wife. They met for the first time in a pretty cousin, Miss Liza O'Neal of Rockcastle. Trigg and his wife loved her at first sight, and the Bluegrass was sought for the hand of his Penelope. Inevitable marriage. Miss O'Neal's father raised objections, but the girl was the great difference in their affection, while she was just bidding adieu to womanhood, she loved him as she seen the snows of sixty winters. But his heart was young and true by mail he continued his wooing, and after they had been separated for a year with such success that the girl agreed to accept of him.

She was waiting for him, when after his long drive from Washington county, he arrived at dark at the front gate of the Oliver farm in the Rockcastle vicinity. She jumped into the buggy and the horses head was turned toward Hopkinsville.

□ They took an early breakfast at a hotel here and then hurried to the courthouse where standing in the office of the County Clerk they were joined in the bonds of wedlock by Judge Polk Canner. — Hopkinsville News E.

Oliver is well known in Springfield. He has been working at his trade of blacksmithing.

When you want a pleasant physical try the new remedy, Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25c. Samples free at Haddon & Robertson's dr. store.

Mr. G. A. Stillman, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes, Foley's Kidney Cure is meeting with success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself am able to testify to its merits. My face to day is a living picture of health and Foley's Kidney Cure has made it so.

Dr. Meyer Dead.
Dr. J. M. Meyer died at the home of his son, Mr. Thorwald Meyer, four miles from town, on the Berryville pike, at eight o'clock last night. He had been in declining health for several months, but continued his practice until a few weeks ago. His death was due to the influenza incident to old age. He was in the eighty-fourth year of his age, and had been an elder for

This first Presbyterian church for this city for many years and a devoted and earnest member. Dr. Meyer was born in Scotland in 1817; came to Kentucky in 1835, entered Centre College and graduated with the A. B. degree in 1840; studied medicine in Lexington with Prof. B. W. Dudley, M. D.; attended Transylvania medical department and took the M. D. degree; settled on Salt river in Boyle and practiced medicine at the point until 1891, when he r moved to Danville. The funeral will be held at the First Presby terian church at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, followed by interment in Bellevue cemetery.

Three sons and two daughter survive him—Mrs. Will Lynn, of Lexington; Miss Florence Mayer
maisons of the State Institution for the Deaf at Taladega, Ala.
Dr. Joseph Mayer, of Paris,
Texas, Mr. Oscar Mayer of St.
Louis, and Mr. Thornell Meyer of this county—Danville Advoca te.

A new failing cure for cuts, burns, sores, ulcers, wounds and sores is Dr. Will's Witch Hazel Salve. A most soothing and healing remedy for all skin afflictions. Accept only genuine. Haydon & Robertson's

Fight in Jail.

A dispute over the division of money raised in the mountain counties to aid in their defense, caused Jim Howard, convict of the Goebel murder, to attack Caleb Powers, who is also a con-

Friday. Powers was knocked senseless with a heavy ink bottle. Powers is in a serious condition with a gash four inches in length across his forehead and the middle temple artery severed. The only witness was J. K. Dixon, who had solicited the defend. Howard Charles Powers cursed him and assumed threatening attitude! Power denies this and claims the attack was unprovoked.

BANNER SALVE
the most healing salve in the world

